10 v.

11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

12 Respondent.
13 _____/

14 On March 3, 2014, Jack Revvill, former counsel for petitioner, submitted to this Court a 15 declaration in response to this Court's order dated February 10, 2014. Mr. Revvill requested that 16 his declaration be filed under seal. Having reviewed the pleadings of record and all competent 17 and admissible evidence submitted, the Court finds good cause to seal the documents at issue.
18 Accordingly, Mr. Revvill's request to seal documents is GRANTED. The Court further issues a 19 protective order restricting the use of the documents to the litigation and limiting their access to 20 Petitioner, any forthcoming counsel of record for Petitioner, counsel of record for the United 21 States, the Court and court staff working on the case. The parties are also prohibited from 22 transmitting the documents to third parties absent further order of the Court.
